Privacy Notice

EL cares about the privacy of its members and places great importance on the protection of their personal data. EL is always fully committed to comply with all applicable data protection laws and regulations. In this context, EL acts as data controller and may process your personal data for different purposes, such as membership management; to comply with its legal obligations; and to inform you about EL's upcoming events, products and services, provided we have obtained your prior consent.

We may share your personal data with third parties providing services on our behalf. These third parties will only have access to your personal data to the extent required to perform their services. We make every effort to ensure these third parties always respect our privacy standards, as well as data protection laws and regulations. The information you provide to us may be transferred to and stored on our secure servers located outside the European Economic Area (EEA). Where we transfer your personal data, we ensure that all the adequate measures are taken to protect your personal data in a manner that is compliant with data protection laws and regulations.

Your personal data will not be kept for longer than necessary and will be stored in accordance with our retention policy and further legal obligations.

You can exercise your rights (i.e. access, rectification, opposition, deletion or portability) by sending an e-mail to info@european-lotteries.org. We will consider any requests, complaints or queries and provide you with a reply in a timely manner. You can also submit a complaint to the Belgian/Swiss Data Protection Authority should you not be satisfied with the way in which we process your personal data.
