POLLARD BANKNOTE ANNOUNCES PASSING OF CHAIRMAN EMERITUS LAWRENCE POLLARD

Peacefully, on January 4, 2019, Lawrence Oliver Pollard, aged 90, passed away in the presence of his family in Winnipeg, Canada. In 1947, Lawrie began work at the family printing business, which he would later rename Pollard Banknote. He was a pioneer of the modern lottery industry, establishing a business which today employs over 1,600 people. He leaves many who are grateful for his legacy.
